Israel Pulls Out of Gaza

Withdrawal Brings to Virtual End Four-Month-Old Invasion of Egypt

By United Press
Israeli forces are withdrawing from the Gaza Strip.

The last Israeli civil and military administrators were to be out this afternoon, bringing to a virtual end the 4-month-old invasion of Egypt.

Helicopters of the United Nations Emergency Force patrolled the Israeli-Egyptian border as long convoys of Indian, Swedish and Colombian units moved up to take the place of the departing Israeli forces.

It was the climax to weeks of painful negotiations which even until this morning remained in doubt.

Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion had promised the withdrawal as an "act of faith" in the United States and the U. N., but it was not until this morning that the Knesset (parliament) gave him three votes of confidence which officially permitted the withdrawal.

Curfew in Gaza

There still was no official word on the withdrawal of other Israeli forces from Sharm El Sheikh along the coast of the Gulf of Aqaba. Israeli flags still flew from gulf coast positions but heavy equipment already had been loaded and final withdrawal was only a matter of giving the word.

Official sources said the much more complicated withdrawal from Gaza would be completed "within several hours." They said the withdrawal was being accomplished without difficulty.

A strict curfew was clamped on the Gaza region in the wake of a series of ambush attacks on Israeli forces there during the night. One Israeli soldier was killed and two wounded. An Arab resident of Gaza also was killed.

Most members of the United Nations proposed civil administration staff for the Gaza Strip arrived

Schools to Close One Week for Easter Vacation

Saline county schools will be dismissed for one full week for the Easter vacation, County Superintendent C. R. Gardner announced today.

Classes will dismiss at the close of school Tuesday, April 16, and will resume Wednesday, April 24. Mr. Gardner explained this longer vacation has been set to conform to state requirements of nine calendar school months and that classes will be held Friday, May 31, and Monday, June 3.

The Junior high school commencement already has been set for May 29, the only date the commencement speaker, Dr. D. W. Morris of Southern Illinois University, had available. The Harrisburg high school commencement has been set for June 4.

Council Asked to Support Project To Beautify Court House Grounds

Att'y Don Scott Explains Rotary Plans at Meeting

Atty. Don Scott, representing the Harrisburg Rotary club, appeared before the city council yesterday asking council support on a planned Rotary project to beautify the court house grounds.

"Two state highways go by our court house and the people going through town look at grounds which are rather shabby," he stated. "Our club wants to move out the catalpa trees and old shrubbery and landscape the grounds."

He said he was one of a committee appointed to go into the matter and that the Saline County Board of Supervisors would be contacted later. A nursery expert who landscaped the Methodist church grounds will be brought

Paul Kihlmire Transferred by Forest Service

Paul M. Kihlmire, Staff Forester on the Shawnee National Forest, will transfer to Milwaukee, Wis., it was announced today by Supervisor L. P. Neff. Kihlmire's new assignment will be in the Forest Service Regional office where he will work on the forestry phases of the U. S. Department of Agriculture soil bank program.

Mr. Kihlmire will go to Milwaukee to take up his new duties on March 11. Mrs. Kihlmire, who teaches in the Carrier Mills grade school, and the rest of the family will remain in Harrisburg until the end of the school year.

Before coming to Harrisburg about four years ago Mr. Kihlmire was District Forest Ranger at Poplar Bluff, Mo. He was previously ranger at Doniphan, Mo., and on the Nicolet National Forest in Wisconsin. In announcing the transfer Mr. Neff said "Paul Kihlmire has done an excellent job on the Shawnee and is well qualified for his new assignment."

Replacing Mr. Kihlmire will be Jerry Klaviva, new district ranger at Glidden, Wis., on the Chequamegon National Forest. "Mr. Klaviva is very familiar with conditions on the Missouri portion of the Shawnee, having been ranger at Doniphan and Potosi, Mo., before going to Wisconsin," Mr. Neff said. Mr. Klaviva will move to Harrisburg with his family about March 25. The Klavivas have two boys.

Farley Announces Three Committees To Meet Friday

William H. Farley today announced three committee meetings to be held Friday evening at Santy's cafe.

At 6 p. m., he said, the Brochure committee of the Shawnee Hills Recreation association will meet at the cafe. Rex Karnes, adviser from Southern Illinois University, will be present.

At 7 p. m. the Ozark Tour committee will meet and the tour for this summer will be discussed.

At 8 p. m. the Saline County Tourist Industry committee of the Shawnee Hills Recreation association will meet to discuss the securing of bumper signs which urge visits to the Shawnee Hills.

Mr. Farley said that if there is time, there will be a brief discussion of forthcoming scenic tours in the area, and invited all Shawnee Hill and Ozark Tour members to attend if they desire. He also reminded that the next regular meeting of the Shawnee Hills Recreation association will be held in the Eastern Star hall at Goreville at 6:30 p. m. April 15.

House Votes To Probe Area Electric Rates

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Five southern Illinois members of the House will investigate electric power rates in their area and effect of the rates on the region's economic growth.

A resolution setting up the investigation was approved by the House Tuesday, 109-49.

The House adopted the resolution after beating down an amendment by Republican Majority Leader John W. Lewis Jr., Marshall, that would have made it a joint resolution requiring Senate concurrence.

Lewis, who previously argued against the resolution and called it a "slap" at the Illinois Commerce Commission, apparently believed the resolution could be beaten in the Senate.

House Speaker Warren L. Wood's office said he probably would not name the five members to the investigating committee until next week.

The committee will report to the Legislature by May 15. The resolution was sponsored by Rep. Bert Baker (D-Benton) who has charged that high power rates in southern Illinois have caused industry to locate elsewhere.

North Williford Baptist Church Buys Parsonage

The North Williford Baptist church, of which LeRoy Marvel is pastor, has bought the house south of the church for a parsonage.

The transaction was completed this week between the trustees of the church and Thomas J. Leverett. The premises consist of a five-room modern house and four lots.

The pastor and family will move into the parsonage in the next week or two, it was stated.

Tulane University Student Among Mardi Gras Revelers is Shot to Death

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A bystander shot to death a Tulane University student wearing a convict's suit in a crowd of costumed Mardi Gras revelers Tuesday night at the height of the pre-Lenten festivities.

Police said August Joseph Durand, 27, Korean war veteran and an electrical engineering student, was shot down by a Negro armed with a .32 automatic pistol and carrying a tambourine.

During one of a group of students wearing broad-striped convict suits and masks, was snake-dancing in the street when one of his companions apparently shot the Negro, who immediately opened fire, police said.

The Negro, identified as Joseph O. Jenkins, 25, was caught after a foot chase of several blocks and held on suspicion of murder. The pistol, with one bullet left, and

Presidential Group Advises Long Time Aid

Special Report Is Submitted To White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—A presidential advisory committee's prediction that this country's foreign aid program must continue "for a long time to come" drew a mixed reaction from Congress today.

But congressmen welcomed the committee's recommendation for cutting the cost of foreign aid to taxpayers.

The special report on foreign aid was submitted to the White House Tuesday night by the President's citizen advisers on the mutual security program. The seven-member group headed by former Chairman Benjamin F. Fairless of the U. S. Steel Corp. wrote the report after a six-month inquiry.

Rep. John M. Vorys (R-Ohio), administration spokesman on the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said "the report shows that when intelligent, practical men are used to study our foreign aid programs, they realize the vital necessity of maintaining our collective security."

But Rep. Robert C. Byrd (D-W. Va.), another committee member, said he would "hesitate to think that foreign aid would be continued over a long period." And Chairman Otto Passman (D-La.) of the House Appropriations subcommittee that passes on foreign aid proposals said "if we don't reduce foreign aid by $1 billion or more, I don't think we can look our people in the eyes."

The committee report said that "barring some major change in circumstances," U. S. spending abroad never should be allowed to exceed $8 billion a year, approximately the amount spent in the last fiscal year.

It said the U. S. economy could stand this, but it added that the committee would like to see a healthy cut in foreign costs.

Mrs. Lee Jones Dies Suddenly

Had Been Nurse at Lightner Hospital For 14 Years

Mrs. Chloe Jones, 65, nurse at the Lightner hospital for the past 14 years, died at 11:55 p. m. yesterday of a sudden heart attack at the hospital. She suffered a broken leg January 31 and had been hospitalized since that time.

Her home was at 325 West Lincoln.

She was the daughter of Mrs. Dona Patrick of Harrisburg and the late Samuel Patrick, and was born Nov. 2, 1891.

Her husband, Lee Jones, preceded her in death as a result of a mine accident in 1940.

She was a member of the McKinley Avenue Baptist church where services will be Friday at 2 p. m. with the Rev. J. D. McCarty officiating. Burial will be in Webster Campground cemetery at Galatia.

Besides her mother she leaves one daughter, Mrs. John Albert (Mildred) Moore, La Grange, Ill., and two sons, Cletus Jones of Chicago, and Wayne Jones of San Francisco; also four grandchildren and one great grandchild. She is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Edgar Horn, Mrs. Ulysses Russell, Robert Patrick, George Patrick, Marvin Patrick, Oral Patrick and Mr. Grace Brewer.

Preceding her in death was a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Steele who died in 1953, and a brother, Elvie Patrick.

The body lies in state at the Gaskins funeral home.

Eisenhower Entertain Members of Congress; McCarthy Is Not Present

WASHINGTON (AP)—President and Mrs. Eisenhower smilingly held a full-dress party Tuesday night for every member of Congress but one — Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

McCarthy's name was nowhere to be found on the official guest list for the traditional White House reception for Congress and government agency officials.

It was the second time McCarthy did not make the list. He was not invited to the last congressional reception held in 1955—the year of the Army-McCarthy feud.

Nor was omission of his name Tuesday night any error.

Mary Jane McCaffree, Mrs. Eisenhower's secretary, referred questions about McCarthy not being invited to Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty.

"It's true," Hagerty said. "I have no further comment."

McCarthy earlier Tuesday gave a new tug to his strained relations with the administration by voting against the Eisenhower Doctrine.

The reception overflowed with smiles and bipartisan goodwill. No figures were given out on attendance at the party in line with a new rule started this season. But reporters were told that the guest list was the largest of the three receptions held this season. One informed estimate put the crowd at close to 2,000.

Chances Dim for Senate Bill to Require Lobbyists to Register

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Chances for passage of a Senate bill to require lobbyists to register and file expense reports dimmed today when the bill went to a subcommittee for study and rewriting.

The Senate Judiciary Committee, which had voted earlier to recommend passage of the bill, reversed itself Tuesday after hearing opposition from lobbying groups and voted 15-6 to send the bill to a subcommittee.

The action represented a major victory for 10 civic, farm and business groups that lobby in the Legislature and which opposed the bill on grounds it did not protect a citizen's right to petition his government.

Sending a bill to a subcommittee is a technique often used in the Legislature to kill a bill.

Joseph T. Meek, of the Illinois Federation of Retail Associations, said "it is our conviction . . . that this bill will greatly hamper and discourage the honest efforts of citizens to petition their government. We fail to see where this bill will get at those who are the real offenders."

Other groups which opposed the bill included the Illinois Manufacturers Assn., the Chicago Civic Federation, the Illinois Agricultural Assn., the Taxpayers Federation, the State Chamber of Commerce, the Illinois Bankers Assn., the Illinois Insurance Federation, the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry and the Associated Employers of Illinois.

In other legislative action, the House Public Aid Committee voted narrowly 15-13 to recommend passage of a bill to raise from one year to two years the residence-in-Illinois requirement for receiving public aid. The Senate Public Welfare Committee has approved a similar bill to raise the residence requirement to three years.

Both bills are based on the theory that Illinois' low residence requirement attracts to the state persons who wind up on relief.

The House Public Aid Committee also voted in favor of a bill to create a special legislative commission to study the whole public aid program, which is asking a 367-million-dollar budget for the next two years, and to report back to the next General Assembly.

The House Appropriations Committee shaved to $500,000 a bill to appropriate funds to the State Health Department for purchase and free distribution of Salk polio vaccine. The bill originally called for $1,500,000.

Seek Buck-Toothed Sadist

To Question Soldiers at Nike Base In Search for Girl's Slayer

MAHWAH, N. J. (AP)—Authorities planned to question soldiers at an Army Nike base today in a search for a buck-toothed sadist who viciously murdered a 15-year-old girl.

The mutilated, half-clothed body of Victoria Zielinski was found by her parents Tuesday morning crumpled in a gravel pit near a lover's lane. Victoria's skull was crushed, her jaw and nose broken, several teeth were missing and her breasts were scarred by bites.

Bergen County Prosecutor Guy W. Calissi said an autopsy showed the pretty sophomore honor student at Ramsey High School had not been criminally assaulted.

Victoria put up a "terrific struggle," Calissi said, because her father had taught her judo. He called the slaying the "most vicious, most brutal and the most sadistic I have ever seen."

Calissi said the girl probably had been murdered by "someone she knew." He said police concluded the killer has buck teeth because

Pass Word That Bill Satisfies President, Dulles

Request Will Be Made for Unanimous Consent by House

WASHINGTON (AP)—House leaders, bowing to White House pressure for fast action, today agreed to ask the House to accept the Senate version of President Eisenhower's Middle East resolution.

The request for unanimous consent to agree to the Senate language will be made Thursday.

Democratic Leader John W. McCormack told the United Press there is no question that the House would approve the Senate version.

The House passed the resolution in different form five weeks ago. The leaders decided against insistence on the House version after White House spokesmen passed along word the Senate language is "satisfactory" to the President and to Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

House GOP Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. said that was the word he had received and he had "no objection" to going along.

Shield Mideast from Reds

Under the proposed procedure, unanimous consent of the House would be necessary to take the resolution from the speaker's desk and substitute the Senate version. If any member objects, a resolution for the move could be obtained from the Rules Committee, a step that would delay action for a day or so.

The resolution is designed to shield the Middle East from possible Communist penetration.

As passed by the Senate Tuesday night on a 72-19 roll call, it states that the United States "is prepared to use armed forces" if necessary to forestall Russian aggression. The House version was in the form of an authorization for the President to take such action.

Mission Leaves Tuesday

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen Mr. Eisenhower was "very pleased at the bipartisan vote" in the Senate and "particularly pleased also at the large majority the resolution received."

Mr. Eisenhower conferred with Dulles and James P. Richards, special presidential assistant who heads the U. S. mission to the Middle East. The mission will leave Tuesday.

Richards said his primary job will be explaining the President's program to Middle East nations.

The Senate's vote for the Middle East resolution was a resounding triumph for the President's emergency plan and a tribute to bipartisanship in foreign policy.

Just before the final vote, Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Texas) declared the resolution was "a clear and unequivocal warning to the Communist aggressors that they must reckon with the United States if they move in the Middle East."

Seek Driver of Stolen Car In Collision on Rt. 13

Officers today sought a young man who was driving a stolen auto that figured in a collision on Route 13 two miles east of Equality about 4 p. m. yesterday.

State Policeman Michael Taggart said the auto, a 1952 Nash reported stolen in Evansville yesterday afternoon, hit a state highway grader operated by Todd Wentzel.

The young man, described as about 22 or 23 years old, 5 feet, eight inches tall, weighing 160 pounds, with dark hair and wearing an army Eisenhower jacket, dark trousers and dark shoes, told Wentzel he would go get a wrecker and hitched a ride toward Harrisburg.

He did not return, leaving the wrecked stolen car with Wentzel. The auto was towed to Harrisburg later.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Senator Neely Challenges Secretary Humphrey And His Indirect Oil Holdings: How Much Does Oil Influence Near East Policy? Nixon Lays 'Em In Aisle In Africa.

WASHINGTON — Eagle-eyed Senator Matt Neely of West Virginia spotted a point which the administration doesn't like to have spotted, while hearing the testimony of Stewart Colman, head of the Middle East Emergency Oil Committee before the Judiciary subcommittee.

Senator Neely accused Coleman of wearing two hats, of representing the government and at the same time representing the oil companies as a long-time executive of the Arabian-American Oil Co., now vice president of Standard Oil of New Jersey.

Neely went further. He poked a finger into the inner financial sanctum of the treasury, where most senators fear to probe. Pointing out that Secretary Humphrey had not sold his stock in the M.
A. Hanna Company, as Charlie Wilson did his General Motors stock, Neely said the Hanna Co. owns 482,256 shares of common stock of Standard of New Jersey.
Value: $26,885,722.

He also pointed out that the M.
A. Hanna Co. owns 187,000 shares of Seaboard Oil. Value: $11,671, 875.

Senator Neely wanted to know if this wasn't a moral conflict of interest. He also speculated regarding the fact that President Eisenhower spent a vacation on Humphrey's luxurious Georgia plantation at the very moment when the Middle East crisis required vital decisions.

GEORGE ALLEN RELAXES

Senator Neely could have gone

further in probing into the possible effect of oil on American foreign policy. Here is the roll call of other personalities who might be influenced by oil:

George Allen, close friend and bridge-playing partner of the President's, also with him at the Georgia plantation. Allen has been chairman of the Yemen Oil Development Co.

Chris Herter, the new under secretary of state, is indebted to Standard of New Jersey for his wife's fortune.

John Foster Dulles' law firm represents Standard of New Jersey.

Ex-Secretary of State Acheson's law firm also represented Standard of New Jersey.

Ex-Under Secretary, Herbert Hoover, Jr., was an executive of Union Oil, which is interlocked with Gulf Oil, which gets its oil from the Gulf of Persia.

These are all honest men. But it's hard for even the most honest public official not to be influenced by subtle, economic pressures.

Oil Money — Largest stockholders in Standard of N. J. are the Rockefellers. The Rockefeller family contributed $152,604 to the Republicans in the recent election. The Mellon family, which owns Gulf Oil, contributed $100, 150; the Pew family, which owns Sun Oil, put up $216,800. Other oil men plunged heavily for Ike.
Almost no oil money went to the Democrats.

At the glamorous state dinner given by Eisenhower to King Saud, the board chairmen of the major oil companies interested in the Near East were present, plus the heads of the Rockefeller banks which back them. The guest list included: Fred Davies, chairman of Aramco; Ralph Polk, chairman of Standard of N. J.; Brewster Jennings, chairman of Socony; Augustus Long, chairman of Texaco; Monroe Rathbone, president of Standard of N. J.; Jack McCloy, chairman of the Chase Bank, and William Kleits, president of Guaranty Trust. Many of these were also GOP contributors.

Next day the presidents of the same companies were invited to dine with Secretary Dulles and King Saud. The chairmen of the boards rated a White House dinner with Ike, the presidents a dinner with Dulles.

MC CARTHY BANS FILM

Senators Alex Smith (R., N. J.)
and Paul Douglas (D., Ill.) recently invited their colleagues in both the House and the Senate to see a showing of the hour-long TV film, aired by NBC, entitled "Drew Pearson Reports On the Holy Land." They invited their colleagues to see the film in the Senate caucus room so it would be easily accessible at the close of a Senate session.

When Senator McCarthy received his invitation he immediately protested. He demanded a ban on any showing in the Senate caucus room, and took his protest to the Subcommittee on Buildings, of which he is a member.

After acrimonious protests by McCarthy, the committee voted.
Senator Hayden (D.) of Arizona and Javitz (R.) of New York voted to show the film. McCarthy and Curtis of Nebraska, Republicans, with Talmadge of Georgia, Democrat, voted against. So the film was shown in the Congressional Hotel next door.

Note — This writer had nothing to do with the arrangements, did not know of plans to see the film in the caucus room until after they were made. Some senators had expressed a desire to see the TV film in order to help guide their vote on the Near East Doctrine.

NIXON IN AFRICA

Vice President Nixon is giving the Secret Service the heebiejeebies in Africa. The men entrusted with guarding the lives of the President and Vice President shun publicity, but they do one of the most effective jobs in or out of the nation's capital.

In the old days they didn't have to worry much about the Vice-President, didn't even have to assign anyone to protect him. He led a quiet life, oscillating between his office in the Senate and his home in Washington. Charlie Davies slept every afternoon and Charlie Curtis played poker every night. Vice President Nixon on the other hand has been traipsing all over the world.

Prior to his African junket, the Secret Service sent men to look over the terrain in the various countries Nixon was to visit. Ordinarily they wouldn't do this, but because of Ike's age and past health, extra precautions are taken. They found the African security situation almost hopeless, on top of which Nixon has insisted on jumping out of his car and mingling with the crowds.

He found this effective on his visit to Japan—except for one thing. He kissed Japanese babies — never done by the Japanese in public. It's considered akin to a sex act.

However, Nixon is the man who has helped sell the Eisenhower administration on the idea of backing the Asian-African bloc. He has argued that western Europe was bankrupt, decadent, that our future lay with the undeveloped countries of Africa and Asia. This is one reason—in addition to oil—why the Eisenhower administration was long so firm about backing the Arabs against Israel.

The present trip therefore is carrying out Nixon's own policy, so the State Department let him have his way.

The British, incidentally, weren't too happy about his going to the Gold Coast. He outranks the British envoy, the Duchess of Kent, and may take the play away from the fact that it is Britain, not the United States, which is giving them their independence.

Note—Democrats claim the Nixon junker is smart politics. His reception in Africa, they point out, should help him win Negro votes.
They also point out that he is making a special trip to Italy where he's already asked for an audience with the Pope.

The Christian Man

BY EUGENE CARSON BLAKE, D.D.
(Written for NEA Service)

I. MAN AND HIS WORLD

"Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may prove what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect." Romans 12:2. RSV.

Humanists say, "Adapt yourself to the world. Conform!" Christianity introduces the living God into the human equation. In Christian faith there are three factors—God, man and the world. The Christian word to man is "Be transformed. Do not be conformed to this world."

Of course, humanists are not all alike. Some are pessimistic. These see man as a victim of his will—a pawn, a puppet, a pitiable object played upon by forces too great and powerful for him to handle. These are the pessimists who keep warning of an inevitable third world war. These are the ones who remind us that death is surely coming and assert that all ideals are illusions, that all hopes are false and that to be realistic man must accept nature and human nature as they are.

Other humanists are optimistic. They are impressed with man's creative, godlike qualities and powers. They encourage men to think of themselves as captains of their souls, as artists, scientists and engineers. They challenge men to be creators. They say, "Mold the world into the shape of your heart's desires."

The mistake of both kinds of humanists is that they omit God from their calculations.

In humanistic despair the world is built up to be the Almighty, and man is warned not to resist. He is told to conform. In humanistic hope, man is told to pretend that he is God and is urged to transform the world as if he were really the Creator.

The Christian Gospel or good news is both realistic and hopeful. We are reminded that God alone is the creator and that man is a creature. But we are also reminded that we are creatures who are made in the image of God, the Creator.

Man is not to be conformed to a wicked and sinful world. Neither can he, by himself and his virtue, transform it into his heart's desire.

Man must himself be transformed by the renewal of his mind and learn to seek from God his will and purposes for the world and for himself. Only thus can man be truly man, learn what is acceptable to God and achieve the good and the perfect.

Both kinds of humanists lead us astray because they forget God. The world is not God nor is man. Life is not tragedy nor is it a bowl of cherries. The world was made by God. It is the arena in which man can learn to live and to love. For love is the meaning of life, its aim and purpose.

Next: Man and his nation.

In Memoriam
In loving memory of our son, John Albert Cooley who died March 6, 1956. Memories are treasures no one can steal. Death is a heartache no one can heal. Some may forget you, now that you're gone. But we will remember no matter how long. Sadly missed by the Cooley family.

In Memoriam
In loving memory of our dear husband, father and grandfather, Hugh McDonald, who passed away 11 years ago today, March 6. Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could see our dear loved one as he used to be. Wouldn't it be wonderful to see him smile. And have him back for a while. We could be wrong for wanting him so. When the angels wanted him we know. Could we be wrong for missing him too. And all the things we used to do. No, we wouldn't disturb his peaceful rest. For we know, above all, God knows best. So he called him to his home on high. But we'll miss our loved one until the day we die. Sadly missed by his wife, Minnie and family.

One Area Highway

Death in February

DU QUOIN, Ill. — Southern Illinois has done a quick about-face in traffic safety.

During January, 17 persons died on the highways in the 17 counties of Du Quoin State Police District 13. That was the third highest toll in the district's history.

Last month, only one fatality was recorded. The lone death was in Williamson County.

Only once in the district's history—March, 1954—has a month gone by without a highway fatality.

THE ELVIS TOUCH—Patricia Collins is one of about 400 Grand Rapids, Mich., women sporting the feminine version of the Elvis Presley haircut. It features sideburns, bangs and ducktail trim in back.

Singing Convention Held Sunday at South America Baptist Church

The Saline County Singing convention held Sunday afternoon at South America Baptist church with singers from all over the country participating.

The Pilgrim quartet was the feature attraction. The Friendly Five, Bonnie and Donnie Billman, Kressa Church, Mrs. Chloe Denney, Owen Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Cletis Stiff, Raymond Allen, Mrs. Afton Partain, little Miss Treva Partain, a trio from the McKinley Avenue Baptist Mission and a fine choir helped make this a fine hymn sing.

Next convention meeting will be the first Sunday in April at the Sloan Street General Baptist church in Harrisburg. All singers and the public are welcome to attend and take part in this meeting.

Test Feed Calf

At Godard's farm market, a purebred Holstein calf, bought in January from Herman Turner, is being fed with Purina nursing chow and Calf Starteena, to prove the Purina statement that calves on the Purina nursing chow program grow a third larger for half the cost of milk feeding. The young heifer is attracting much attention among cattle owners.

March 8 Final Date For Signing Acreage Reserve Agreements

The final date for signing 1957 corn, spring wheat, and rice acreage reserve agreements is March 8, Herman Driskell, chairman of the local ASC office, stated today.

"This means," continued Mr. Driskell, "that our corn farmers must make up their minds by this coming Friday. Only in the event that new corn legislation is enacted will a different corn acreage reserve sign-up be permitted."

Not only is March 8 the final date for signing an agreement, it is also the final date for farmers to terminate or to make basic changes in any agreements that they may have already filed.

"Farmers of this state should recognize that supplies of corn are the largest in the nation's history. The Acreage Reserve program provides a means of attacking the price depressing surplus of corn and other basic crops. It deserves the sober consideration of each and every producer," Mr. Driskell said.

Any farmer who wishes to sign an acreage reserve agreement or who desires additional information or clarification relative to the Soil Bank program should call at the ASC office located at city hall, Harrisburg.

Syrian Government Permits Repair Of Oil Pipelines

DAMASCUS Syria — The Syrian government today gave permission for repair of the vital oil pipelines which were blown up during the Anglo-French invasion of Egypt.

It was the first break in the Arabs' unofficial blockade of oil from the Persian Gulf to Europe.

The Syrians had refused permission for the Iraq Petroleum Co., which operates the pipelines from Iraq to Lebanon, to repair pumping stations blown up after the Suez intervention pending Israel's final withdrawal from Egyptian territory.

The other main westward route for Persian Gulf oil — the Suez Canal — is still closed.

In London, a spokesman for the Iraq Petroleum Co. said oil can start moving through the Syrian pipeline "within seven days of repair work being started."

Local Kiwanis Club Receives Top District Rating for Achievement Reports

It was announced at a meeting of the Kiwanis club last night at the Masonic temple that the local club had received recognition for having the best achievement reports in the Illinois-Iowa District for 1956. The honor was tops for clubs of the White Division, in the same class as the local club.

Achievement reports are made by Club Secretary Ralph Woolard and were for the period of immediate past president Ronnie Doerge. President Richard Davenport praised the efforts of all the club members as well as the officers and directors for enabling the club to receive district recognition.

Guest speaker at last night's meeting was County Judge Trafton Dennis on the subject of wills.

Illinois School Official Dies

CHICAGO — Bertrand L. Smith, 43 Illinois elementary school official and chairman of the legislative committee of the Illinois Education Assn. died Tuesday.

Smith had been superintendent of the Oak Park grade schools for more than 10 years.

Previous to the Oak Park post he was assistant superintendent of schools at Alton and a school official at Quincy.

Electoral Board Canvass Gives House 51,413 Votes, Hanagan 39,726

SPRINGFIELD — The State Electoral Board canvass of the 1st District Supreme Court election showed today Republican Byron O. House, Nashville, polled 51,413 votes to 39,726 for Democrat Francis P. Hanagan, West Frankfort.

The special election was held Feb. 25 to fill the vacancy created by the death of the late Justice Ralph L. Maxwell, Nashville.

He explained wills are made to fit particular situations and may be changed as the family's situation changes during the years. There is no constitutional right for the making of wills as the statutes of Illinois grants that privilege. The statutes also provide for the distribution of property if no will is left.

Judge Dennis also explained that wills made prior to marriage are null as are wills which have been made under the undue influence of another person for his benefit. The will also must provide with distribution of property according to statute, Judge Dennis stated. The surviving spouse may take the inheritance according to the will or according to law, he explained.

Property should be divided legally so no attempt will be made to break it, Judge Dennis said.

He also explained joint wills by man and wife, where the survivor cannot change other survivors to the benefit of his or her family.

He also explained the value of proper valuations in the inventory of an estate and trusts which cannot be set up in perpetuity. Also explained was the proper execution of a will and stated it does not have to be recorded but should be placed in a proper, safe place where it can be easily found following the death. The best place, he said, is a safe deposit box as they cannot be opened after death without a proper inventory of contents.

President Davenport announced the club will hold a St. Patrick's Day ladies' night meeting next Tuesday evening.

Guests at last night's meeting were Gardner Naden of Webster City, Iowa, a visiting Kiwanian; C. Dawan Fritch, guest of Eugene Morris, and Kenneth Dunkel of Terre Haute, Ind., a guest of Charles Shingler.

Also present were Eddie Quade and Donnie Beggs, members of the Kiwanis-sponsored Key club at the high school. Quade is the president-elect of the HTHS club and also lieutenant governor-elect of the Key clubs of this division.

St. Louis Mayor Renominated By Democrats

ST. LOUIS — Mayor Raymond R. Tucker won renomination as the Democratic candidate easily in the municipal primary election piling up a margin of 51,845 votes over former Sheriff Thomas F. Callanan.

The complete count was Tucker, 68,479 and Callanan, 16,625.

A third candidate, building contractor Henry E. Kemper, had virtually no organized support and received only 1,648 votes.

Tucker will face the Republican nominee, attorney Richard J. Mehan, 31, ran unopposed and received 7,435 votes.

The total combined vote was 94,187, about what had been expected for an election which was marked by apathy. But the Democratic total of 86,752, based on the vote for mayor, was a far larger proportion than the party had been expected to receive.

This was the first break in the Arabs' unofficial blockade of oil from the Persian Gulf to Europe.

In another conciliatory move, Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser decreed an end to his country's general mobilization which had been ordered at the time of the Suez intervention last year.

Marion Ousts Attucks from Regional Play

Unbeaten Elgin trampled Harvard, 114-55, Tuesday night to pace a list of seven rated prep basketball powers that scored easy triumphs in first round regional tournament play.

Marion ousted one of the better district teams in beating Carbondale Attucks, 66-50, at Murphysboro.

Elgin, No. 2 team in the state, was led by Dick Becker who fired a blazing 733 percentage from the field in hitting on 11 of 15 shots.

Paris rolled up a 97-38 win over Martinsville at Casey, Effingham St. Anthony pasted Farina, 66-41, at Teutopolis. Chicago Heights Bloom, beaten only once all season, routed Lincolnway, 77-39, at Joliet.

Pekin bounced Morton, 75-44, at Peoria Limestone. Springfield Lanphier walloped Manito Forman, 83-45, at Havana. Rock Island Alleman smacked Erie, 91-67, at East Moline.

Thornton rolled up the night's biggest score, thumping Morgan Park Military Academy, 122-40, at Thornton.

Dotson to Use Stone, Hassett in Tourney Tonight

Bull Dog Coach John Dotson today said that his two ailing basketball players, Ray Hassett and Wayne Stone, will be used in the regional contest against McLeansboro at 8:30 tonight at Norris City but that he doesn't expect them to be up to par.

Hassett and Stone, the leading Bull Dog scorers, were suited up for practice last night but saw little action. Hassett, who suffered a sprained ankle, would engage in practice for a couple of minutes, then walk around the gym floor ten or 12 times before getting in for another couple of minutes.

Stone, who suffered a slipped disk, devoted nearly all his time to stretching exercises.

Dotson, who must cut his squad down to 10 for the tournament, named 11 boys this morning. He said he will take Wayne Stone, Hassett, Ben Fulkerson, Bill Henshaw, Charles Cummings, Jim Cummings, John Zeigler, and Dick Drue, plus two of these three boys: Mickey Stone, Kinch Jones and Donald Biggs.

Chamberlain and Forte Outstanding All-Star Selections

NEW YORK — Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain of Kansas and Chet (The Jet) Forte of Columbia, the tallest and the smallest of the nation's college basketball stars, were the outstanding choices today on the 1957 United Press All-America team.

The three other players honored in a nationwide poll of 281 sports writers and radio and television broadcasters were Lennie Rosenbluth of North Carolina's top ranked Tarheels; Grady Wallace of South Carolina, the major college scoring leader; and "Hot Rod" Hundley of West Virginia.

Chamberlain, the celebrated 7-foot Kansas center, is only the second sophomore ever to win a place on the United Press first All-America team. Tom Gola of LaSalle was so honored in 1953. The four other players are seniors.

Hundley, undoubtedly the most colorful player in this season's college crop, won the fifth position on the mythical team by a small margin over Elgin Baylor of Seattle.

Named to the second team with Baylor were Charlie Tyra of Louisville, Jim Krebs of Southern Methodist, Little Gary Thompson of Iowa State and Joe Gibbon of Mississippi.

Norris City Meets Equality, Harrisburg Plays McLeansboro in Games Tonight

Carrier Mills and Eldorado advanced into the semifinals of the Norris City regional basketball tournament by defeating Shawneetown and Ridgway respectively Tuesday night.

The other two semifinals will be determined tonight when Norris City meets Equality at 7 o'clock and Harrisburg faces McLeansboro at 8:30.

Carrier Mills won as expected from Shawneetown, 81-34, but the Eldorado 10-point 67-57 decision over Ridgway was more-or-less a surprise. The game was considered a tossup with victory to be decided by not more than four or five points.

Eldorado, playing a pressing game, gradually pulled away after a close first quarter and held various leads, as much as 17 points on different occasions.

Tomorrow night at 7 p. m. Carrier Mills and Eldorado will meet for the fifth time this season. In the four previous games Carrier Mills has copied the decision. In the first game Carrier Mills was forced to come from behind to take a 56-50 victory, but have won by comfortable margins in the last three outings.

Wildcats Lead 29-10 at Half Shawneetown elected to play possession ball against the powerful Wildcats and the clock ticked along with Shawneetown holding the ball and Carrier Mills content to stay back in a zone defense.

The first quarter ended 6-2 in favor of the Wildcats. During the period Shawneetown shot but one time from the field and missed. The 'Cats hit on three of five efforts.

Things picked up considerably in the second quarter. Carrier Mills collecting 23 points to Shawneetown's eight and the half ended 29-10 in favor of the 'Cats.

Carrier Mills had 26 points in each of the last two quarters and the losers had a 15-point third frame and scored 9 more in the final period.

Rollins, who usually carries the CM scoring load, collected but 10 points, the same as teammate Jack Cowger. Harold Fitts, acting captain, showed the way with 21, closely followed by Rouse's 18 and Coffield with 17.

For the game Carrier Mills hit a hot 600 from the field with 33 goals on 55 attempts. The 33 fielders equalled the attempts by Shawneetown, who connected 9 times for an average of 273.

Shell, senior center, was high for Shawneetown with 11 points.

Rush Ridgway Guards
The second game saw Ridgway with an attack built around Roger Suttner, 6-9 center, and Eldorado using a defense to keep the Ridgway ball handlers off balance.

Although Suttner was given lots of defensive attention, Eldorado didn't try to stop Suttner as much as they tried, and successfully, to cut off his source of supply.

The Ridgway guards were rushed from the opening whistle and forced into numerous errors — walking, palming the ball, wild passing.

In the Eldorado opening lineup were Leonard Willis and Marty Fequay at the guard posts. They were on the move constantly.

As the second quarter started they were relieved by guards Ben Dempsey and Web Mosby. The ever-pressing tactics were continued.

In the third frame the original starters of Willis and Fequay came back, but before the game was over Eldorado's biggest players—forward Don Kingery and Thornton Davis—had fouled out guarding Suttner and the Eldorado crew played four guards and a reserve center. Regular pivot man Richard Overton left midway in the final frame with a sprained ankle. However he is expected to be ready to go by Thursday night.

Despite all defensive efforts big Suttner broke loose for 21 points and game scoring honors. He hit for nine field goals and three free tosses.

Scoring Well Spaced
Second in the Ridgway scoring column was Pat Lawler, playing his first game in weeks after being sidelined with a broken foot. Lawler took command in the fourth frame after Suttner fouled out, getting 11 points, including four field goals.

Overton's 17 points were tops for Eldorado and all eight players in action scored. Eldorado's scoring was well spaced, scoring 16 points

THE STORY: The first herd of Texas cattle brings flourishing business to Pawnee City. Chad Morgan and Joe Jagger believe nothing can stop their success. Then a shot rings out.

IX

And then he left Helen Jagger and was running swiftly toward the tent saloon.

Pillsbury and a half-dozen men were standing in a small semicircle, looking down at the crumpled body of a Texas cowboy. One of the men, whom Morgan had never seen before, was holding a revolver in his hand. He was a lean, pasty-faced man in a Prince Albert, dark trousers and a gaudy vest.

Morgan's eyes went to him at once.

"You killed this man?" The gambler lifted sullen eyes at him. "Nobody calls Buckley Thorne a cheat."

"Mister," said one of the cowboys, "this tinnhorn just killed Curly Meeker. We aim to put a rope around his neck."

The gun in the hand of Buckley Thorne came up. "Nobody puts a rope on me," he said hoarsely. At that moment Chad Morgan hit him. It was a savage blow and caught the gambler flush on the point of the jaw. He went down, his revolver flying from his hand.

The cowboys swooped down on Thorne. Only semiconscious, he was being dragged from the tent, when Chad Morgan found the gambler's revolver.

He thrust it skyward and pulled the trigger.

The blast caught the cowboys unprepared. They let go of Thorne, who managed to retain his feet, and turned on Chad Morgan.

"You're not hanging him," said Morgan evenly.

Dan Hastings, the Texas cattle drover, came into the saloon. At his heels were three more Texas men and Joe Jagger.

"Curly Meeker," he groaned. He looked around and picked out Thorne. "You're the man killed this boy?"

"He pulled a gun on me," snarled Thorne.

"He ain't gonna kill nobody else," shouted one of the cowboys.

Joe Jagger nodded enthusiastically. "Mr. Hastings, I'm sorry about the boy. This is a new town and things are still pretty unsettled, but one thing we can't have here is somebody going around killing people. I say we make an example."

Morgan started to protest, but a sudden shout went up among the cowboys and his words were drowned out. And then it was too late. Hands grabbed at the gambler-killer. Fists smashed into his face. Guns came out and struck him. Screaming and babbling, he was dragged out of the saloon.

The gun in Chad Morgan's hand was useless. The press of men in the small space was too great. They were too angry, too violent to be stopped.

This was the day that the first cattle cars were loaded in Pawnee City.

It was also the day when the first man was killed in Pawnee City.

And it was the day of the first lynching in Pawnee City.

Artie Puffpuff stood in the middle of the dusty street as shabby and dirty as ever. He had lived here, right on this very spot, that was now churned into dust by the boots of men, by the hoofs of cattle and ironshod horses.

Owlishly he looked toward the huge hotel, straight ahead at the cattle pens beyond, where the bawling of cattle never ceased.

He turned slowly and surveyed the buildings on his left: a saloon, a restaurant, a photographer's shop, a general store, a barber-shop, a hardware store, another saloon, a bank.

Banks had money and Artie Puffpuff had none.

Well, Artie Puffpuff had a gun. It was an old dragoon pistol that had seen much service. It had no trigger guard; it was big and cumbersome and kicked like old Ned, but it could still fire a very loud and very lethal charge of lead.

Puffpuff aimed the old horse pistol at the window of the bank. He pulled the trigger again. The bullet managed to score near the upper left corner of the rather large glass pane and to Puffpuff's ears came the pleasant crash and tinkle of glass.

Joe Jagger happened to be in the bank and he came dashing out, his Navy gun in his fist. He saw Puffpuff and strode toward him.

"What do you think you're doing, you drunken fool?" snapped Jagger.

"You cheated me," said Artie Puffpuff. "You robbed me and you cheated me out of this here property."

"I bought this land from you," snapped Jagger.

"Yuh gimme a bottle of whiskey," whined Puffpuff.

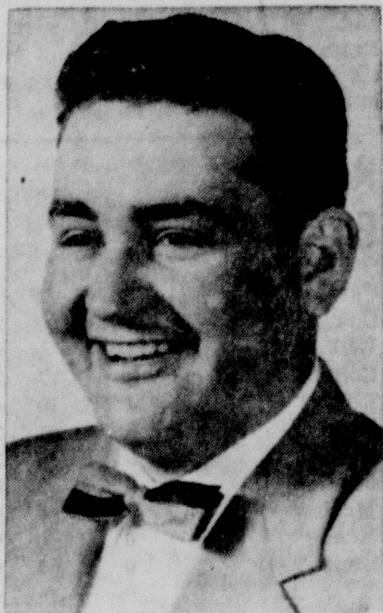

"I paid you hard cash," Jagger said. "You had no real claim to it, anyway. I could have taken it without giving you anything."

"That's what you did . . . You took 'er away from me by force, that's what. It ain't right. You got a town here now. And it's supposed to be mine."

"You fool," said Jagger, "go and get yourself a drink."

He took a silver dollar from his pocket. Artie Puffpuff's hand went out automatically, but Jagger threw the dollar into the dust of the street. Puffpuff went down to his knees and searched for the dollar and could not find it.

CONSTIPATED?

New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

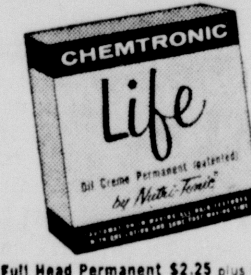

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H stimulate it to action; to a normal urge to purge.

And, of all laxatives, only COLONOID, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONOID's great moisturiz-ing capacity, plus COLONOID's stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONOID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONOID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions. It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get COLONOID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98¢ for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief at less than 2¢ per tablet.

Woman Charged With Embezzlement

WOODSTOCK, Ill. (AP) — Mrs. Lucy A. Bott, former head cashier at the Montgomery Ward store here, was bound over to a county grand jury on charges of embezzling $20,640.

The auditor of the store, W. C. Hincley, said shortages in all departments of the store dating back to 1949 totaled more than $50,000.

But Assistant State's Atty. C. Russell Allen said Mrs. Bott could not be prosecuted on any shortages earlier than the last three years because of the statute of limitations. Mrs. Bott appeared in court Tuesday.
